NEWS SUMMARY.

It is said that English speculators are buying up milk on the Continent, reducing it, by a drying process, to powder, importing it to England and mixing it with water for use.

The last census gives the population of New Zealand, exclusive of the military and their families, at 190,607. There are about 35,000 aboriginal na ives principally in the province of Auckland. "A special dispatch to the New York World," says the Cleveland Plaindealer, "which has heretofore been taking the dispatches of the New York Monopoly, to-day gave in its adhesion to the West-

A Paris correspondent writes: "Cloaks are to come back to fashion this winter. Paletots are to be utterly given up, and all male bipeds who respect themselves and the mandates of the Jockey Club are to appear draped in the ample folds of something between a Spanish cape and the o'd military cloak." A few days since, a mulatto woman and her babe were shipped from Troy, Ohio, by an express company, as ordinary freight. She was taken to the office of the company, her weight averaged, a bill of lading made out, and the usual label for packages tied round her neck with a string. It was mentioned yesterday that advices from Havana, Cuba, report a monetary crisis, from the want of specie, which has been exported or hoarded. The Bank of Bossier has suspended payment and closed its doors; also the Bank of temper may already see the dawn of a brighter Commercio (known as Zellas), and Bank de San true to the South (i. c. true to the fundamental Jose. For several days there had been a run on the Spanish Bank, which had, on the 15th instant, $2,903,757 in specie in its vanits with which to pay its paper issue, or bills amounting to $3,653,150. Rev. W. H. MILBURN, the blind Episcopal clergyman, entertains some hope of recovering his sight. Eminent oculists have informed him that so many are the new facilities for examining the eye, that, in their opinion, a double operation upon the right eye would enable him not only to distinguish objects, but, perhaps, read coarse type. Rev. Mr. M. intends going to Europe in the spring, to consult an oculist at Berlin, whose reputation, in that specialty, is world-wide.

News from Saigon (India) to the end of October, reports great damage to the rice fields, caused by elephants which appeared in large numbers in the environs of Baria. Already, during the month of September, they had obstructed the road from Bieu-Phuoc during several hours. It is a nice thing to go to war, be victorious, and bring your enemy to terms by assessing upon him all the expenses, and a margin to spare. The late Prussian campaign against Austria cost $42,000,000, which the Emperor has levied upon his enemies, thus: Austria, $28,000,000; Bavaria, $12,000,000; Saxony, $7,000,000; Wurtemberg, $3,200,000; Baden, $2,400,000; Frankfort, $2,400,000; Hesse Darmstadt, $1,200,000. Total, $56,200,000. Being the whole sum, and a round $14,000,000 of profit beside. Not a bad summer's work.

The Knoxville Whig, of the 19th ult., says: "We are authorized to say that, after Monday next, a regular train will run to and from Clinton, on the Knoxville and Kentucky Railroad, with a passenger car attached, for the accommodation of travellers and freight. This is the opening up of a new and great channel of trade and travel, which will not again be checked until we are connected with Louisville and Cincinnati, and this will be at no distant day. In two years more we shall be in ference required a majority vote of three connection with South and North Carolina, starting out from Morristown."

A colony of freedmen, consisting of three hundred heads of families, comprising about two thousand men, women and children, is to be established west of Now Smyrna, thirty miles south of Fernandina. They come from South Carolina, and are in charge of General ELY. The Government gives them one month's subsistence and transportation, and they supply themselves with two. The country which they are to occupy is well adapted to cultivation, has a fine range for cattle, and abounds in fish, oysters and game. Colonel SPRAGUE, commanding the District, has guaranteed military protection, and with this military supervision, toge her with well directed industry, their condition must be greatly improved. They will leave Charleston, S. C., next month in steamers for New Smyrna.

The exportation of sugar from Puerto Rico during the past year has amounted to 128.834,740 pounds, the value of which is calculated at four and a half millions of dollars. Coffee to the value of two millions of dollars, and cotton to half a million, also swell the total sum of the exports which altogether amount to nearly nine millions. The far greater portion of the trade has been with the United States, for over ninety-four million pounds of sugar went there, whilst to the next best customer, England, only twenty-three million pounds were sent. It is remarkable that very little coffee found its way to American markets, only eightyone-thousand pounds; whilst to England three million pounds, to Spain four million, to Cuba one and a half million, and to Italy nearly two and a them.

CHARLESTON.

TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 1, 1867.

OUR NEW FORM.

THE CHARLESTON DAILY NEWS bids its readers this morning a happy New Year, and does so in a new dress. Heretofore we appeared in royal quarto, now in imperial folio. Upon the first enlargement of THE NEWS WE determined upon an eight-page sheet, being the form most generally in use in all large cities, both in Europe and on this Continent. has pronounced in its favor. Our opinion on A bureau for the Mississippi Valley, through this subject has not changed; but the reading public of this city, always having been accustomed to four-page sheets, seemed unwilling to points and periods, is to be established at St. surrender their preference for the old custom. We thus had continual solicitations for such a change from our patrons. The advertisers all is a dull crop just now. Mo t of the tobacco wished to have their announcements on the outside half of the paper. None wanted to be "stuck away" on the inside. To obviate this difficulty we have at last yielded to a general desire of our friends and have entered THE ess DE MOLINS and the Duchess BEL PILAR OSORIO News on a new four-page race, for which we would bespeak the same regard and patronage, our eld octavo friend so largely enjoyed. The Old "News," in retiring (with its venerable friend, 1866), tenders its most polite respectfully solicits their continued countenance for its new-born bigger brother-the large four-page sheet, commencing with this, the first day of the year 1867.

NEW YEAR.

Another grain of sand has fallen from the hour-glass. Another station on the highway of life has been reached by the weary pilgrim. Another unit of life is gone, and death is by one year nearer to all of us. It is a time for thoughtfor solemn reflection. Have we progressed during the past three hundred and sixty-five train started, she was placed in charge of the days? Are we wiser or better! Has the troubled spirit! Have we learned to calm our passions, and to open our hearts and hands to are gratified to be able to state that the Catholic the promptings of heaven-born charity? These are meditations and interrogatories naturally suggested by the season, and happy those of our readers whose conscience will answer them in the affirmative.

The National Executive has remained law of the land), and now another buckler will be held up for our defence in the declarations of the highest judicial tribunal in the country. We may reasonably, therefore, hope that the day of deliverance is nearer, by twelve menths to-day, than it was January 1, 1866.

We have nothing to boast of, and cannot flatter ourselves with any great degree of prosperity. The crops were short; the people are poor-many of them suffering for the necessaries of life. Our debts are great-our resources few, and taxes heavy, almost beyond endurance. We wish we could give a brighter coloring to the picture, but the truth is not always, indeed not generally, pleasant. We would tell our people be patient-trust and hope, and all will come right.

We have, unquestionably, much also to b thankful for, and at a solemn season like the present it becometh all of us to humble ourselves before the great Scarcher of hearts, and return thanks to the Giver of all good for His grace and manifold mercies toward us. A happy New Year we wish to all our readers; and may it be our privilege to address them many times more, and theirs to read, for long years to come, our annual lucubrations.
